

ANNOUNCEMENT

of Rector of the Vistula School of Hospitality

of November 26, 2019

on students' compliance with the applicable provisions governing their attitude towards the University's employees.

I would like to remind you that each student the Vistula School of Hospitality is obliged to comply with the content of the oath and the Terms and Conditions of Study, observe the good customs of the academic community and the regulations in force at the University, and in particular show due respect to its authorities and all employees.

The authorities of VSH will not tolerate rude, dismissive or demanding attitude to the teaching and administrative staff, for which there is a risk of liability to a disciplinary commission under the rules set out in the Act on Higher Education and Science and the University Statute. Such reprehensible practices will be punished with all severity, including removal from the list of students, and in the case of foreign students also by notification of this fact to the Border Guard.

Rector of the Vistula School of Hospitality

REKTOR SGTHV

dr hab. Sabina Żysko, prof. SGTHV