

Announcement of Vistula School of Hospitality Rector regarding organization of classes in the winter semester of the 2020/2021 academic year

Dear Students and Candidates,

From the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic in Poland, the University authorities have been trying to provide you with maximum safety and comfort of studying. Therefore, we have decided that classes in the winter semester in the upcoming academic year 2020/2021 will be carried out in a mixed, i.e. hybrid form.

Accordingly:

- 1) All courses for first semester students as well as selected courses and seminars for students of higher semesters will be carried out in the traditional mode of delivery at the University maintaining all the necessary rules of sanitary regime. Courses for first semester students and for students of higher semesters who will not be able to attend them in person will be organized using online learning methods and techniques.
- 2) Lectures and seminars will be conducted with the use of online learning methods and techniques. Students will be provided with didactic materials supporting the education process.

Classes for first-semester students begin on October 19, 2020; for the rest of students according to the schedule of the 2020/2021 academic year. (Order No. 8/04/2020 of Vistula School of Hospitality Rector of 30.04.2020).
